

On strike eve, Jagan tries to appease staff

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@ Vijayawada

WITH the Pay Revision Commission (PRC) Struggle Committee announcing that it will go ahead with its planned 'Chalo Vijayawada' programme on Thursday, Chief Minister YS Jagan Mohan Reddy directed officials to speed up the process of fulfilling all the assurances made to government employees. While the Chief Minister's direction seems like it is meant to appease the employees that the government is sincere in fulfilling the assurances made to them, government advisor (public affairs) Sajjala Ramakrishna Reddy made it clear that action will be taken if the general public are put to inconvenience by the employees with their show of strength.

Holding a Spandana video conference with District Collectors and SPs on Wednesday, Jagan said the government made certain announcements with regard to the PRC and other issues. "We have promised to provide compassionate appointments to the kin of frontline warriors who died during Covid duties. Orders in this regard have already been issued. Hence, the appointments should be completed by June 30.

The appointments should be made in village and ward secretariats on a priority basis. There should not be any laxity on the part of officials on this issue," he asserted.

With regard to house sites, Jagan instructed the officials to allocate plots to every eligible employee in the 10 per cent reserved space in Jagananna smart townships, besides providing 20 per cent price rebate. The employees seeking plots in the smart townships, should apply by March 5, he said.

Speaking on probation of village/ward secretariat employees, he said it should be provided by June 30 to ensure that all the staff receive new salaries by July 1. The probation examinations for the remaining 25 per cent secretariat employees should be completed at the earliest, he stressed.

Plea seeks detailed report on investigation

Continued from page 1: The petitioner sought a detailed report on the findings submitted by retired IAS officer Vinay Kumar and claimed that no final report on the probe was submitted. The government informed the court the ACB registered an FIR in 2018 soon after allegations of preferential treatment surfaced. But the final chargesheet was not filed as the State was yet to grant sanction to proceed against the accused.

Pondy power staff suspend strike after CM's assurances

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@ Puducherry

PUDUCHERRY Chief Minister N Rangasamy has assured to explore the pros and cons of privatisation of the power sector and re-negotiate it with the Central government. He said an appropriate decision will be taken after consultation with all stakeholders.

Power Minister A Namassivayam released the statement after the conclusion of a meeting held on Wednesday between representatives of Electricity Engineers and Employees Privatisation Protest Committee, and the CM, himself and others. Following CM's assurance, the employees of Electricity department has temporarily suspending their strike.

Earlier, Namassivayam said the government has decided to discuss the issue of privatisation of power distribution and transmission with the Centre. The views expressed by employees, leaders on privatisation will be appraised to the Centre, said Namassivayam.

The employees had gone on an indefinite strike from February 1 demanding withdrawal of the move to privatise power distribution and transmission in Puducherry. The Electricity Engineers and employees Privatisation Protest committee General Secretary P Velmurugan said the chief minister has assured not to pursue the move till it is taken up with the Central government.
